Sir,

From the day this trust was incorporated I was appointed as Treasurer of Trust. As a Treasurer I took my position within trust, the responsibilities set forth by the By-Laws, and the trust extended to me very seriously. I can say without a shadow of doubt in my mind that I have fulfilled responsibilities with dedication and have gone above and beyond the required duties.

But due to certain personal reasons I am unable to continue with the trust. So I request the authorities to accept my resignation and set me free from my duties. However, I will be fully responsible for all the work done by me during my tenure of office with said trust, with or without Bonafide Intention.

Thanks for giving me opportunity for working as a part of this trust.
